Newport and District Agricultural Society Scholarship Application Information 2022/23

The Newport and District Agricultural Society Scholarship, valued at £1,500 is open to all Year 2 and Year 4 BSc, BEng, MEng, or Year 3 FdSc students enrolled in full-time education at the University.

Please note: previous recipients of this scholarship are not eligible to apply.

The successful scholarship recipient will receive a one-off payment of £1,500. The award will be paid in two equal parts; half to be paid in February 2023 and the remaining balance in May 2023.

Payment is conditional on the scholar remaining registered as a full-time student at Harper Adams. They must pass all modules of study during the continuation of the scholarship and submit a letter of thanks for the sponsor to the Development Trust prior to the receipt of each payment.

This is a competitive award which will be evaluated on the merit of the submitted application, academic achievements to date and interview. The Development Trust embraces diversity and promotes equality of opportunity and access to higher education. The Trust has been successful in supporting a wide range of students. It strongly encourages applications from students of all backgrounds. Where there are two applicants of equal merit, preference will be given to applicants who are from backgrounds that are underrepresented in UK higher education.

The decision of the NDAS Scholarship Panel is FINAL and they reserve the right to withdraw the award at any time should they feel this action is required.

*Shortlisted applicants are required to attend a panel interview on Wednesday 7 December 2022

Please note that an alternative interview date cannot be arranged

Application Process

To be eligible to apply for this scholarship you must also:

- Reside within the counties of either Shropshire or Staffordshire and have been a permanent resident in the county for the last 3 years. Please note: records will be verified with those previously provided to the University.
- Not represent another Society! Students who represent another Society ARE NOT eligible to apply for this scholarship. The NDAS reserves the right in association with the University, not to award a scholarship should there be no suitable candidate.
- Present at the Society's AGM. The successful scholar will be awarded membership of the Newport and District Agricultural Society for 12 months and will also be required to give a presentation at the Society's AGM in the academic year in which the scholarship was awarded (normally held in January).

The Society will invite the successful scholar to attend the Newport Show in the relevant academic year awarded and have some mutually agreed involvement in its planning and organisation. They would also be encouraged to develop a long term relationship with the Society.
