The John Longwill Agricultural Scholarship Scheme

Application Information 2022/23

The John Longwill Scholarship is exclusive to students from Leicestershire, who can show a relevance to Agriculture. The Scholarship is open to year 2 BSc, year 4 BSc, or year 3 FdSc students, enrolled in full-time education at Harper Adams University.

The successful scholarship recipient(s) will receive an award valued at a minimum of £1,250. The award will be payable in two equal parts; half to be paid in February 2023 and the balance in May 2023.

Payment is conditional on the scholar remaining registered as a full-time student at Harper Adams. They must pass all modules of study during the continuation of the scholarship and submit a letter of thanks for the sponsor to the Development Trust prior to the receipt of each payment.

This is a competitive award which will be evaluated on the merit of the submitted application, academic achievements to date and interview. The Development Trust embraces diversity and promotes equality of opportunity and access to higher education. The Trust has been successful in supporting a wide range of students. It strongly encourages applications from students of all backgrounds. Where there are two applicants of equal merit, preference will be given to applicants who are from backgrounds that are underrepresented in UK higher education.

The decision of the John Longwill Scholarship panel is FINAL and they reserve the right to withdraw the award at any time should they feel this action is required.

Shortlisted applicants are required to attend an interview on Tuesday 6 December 2022

Please note that an alternative interview date cannot be arranged
