

The Dunbia Scholarship Application Information 2023/24

Who can apply?

The Dunbia Scholarship is open to all 2nd year BSc and 1st year FdSc students at Harper Adams University who are looking for a career in the meat processing industry with Dunbia. A placement year with Dunbia must be suitable for your course area.

Opportunities

If awarded the successful recipient will receive:

- A significant contribution towards their education of £4,500
- Employment within the Food Safety, Quality & Animal Welfare department at Dunbia during their placement year
- A supported learning and development framework, training, a mentor and regular reviews.
- Subject to a review at the end of placement with Dunbia there may be an opportunity of further funding in the scholar's final academic year

The award will be paid in two equal parts; half to be paid in February 2024 and the remaining balance in May 2024.

Payment is conditional on the scholar remaining registered as a full-time student at Harper Adams. They must pass all modules of study during the continuation of the scholarship and submit a letter of thanks for the sponsor to the Development Trust prior to the receipt of each payment. A condition of your scholarship is that you undertake your placement year within the Food Safety, Quality & Animal Welfare Department at Dunbia (various locations available).

This is a competitive award and will be evaluated on the merit of the submitted application, academic achievement to date and interview. The Development Trust embraces diversity and promotes equality of opportunity and access to higher education. The Trust has been successful in supporting a wide range of students. It strongly encourages applications from students of all backgrounds. Where there are two applicants of equal merit, preference will be given to applicants who are from backgrounds that are underrepresented in UK higher education.

The decision of the Dunbia Scholarship Panel is FINAL and they reserve the right to withdraw their award at any time should they feel this action is required.

*Shortlisted applicants will be invited to interview with Dunbia between
Wednesday 20 November and Wednesday 6 December 2023*
