The Jill Willows Scholarship Application Information 2023/24

The Jill Willows Scholarship is open to all 2nd Year BSc, Final Year BSc students and Final Year FdSc students at Harper Adams University, also year 2 students studying Veterinary Medicine and Surgery (BVetMS) at Harper & Keele Veterinary School, and who are enrolled on full-time undergraduate courses. Note that engineering students are not eligible to apply.

Jill Willows was someone who cared deeply about the rural community and the role of young people in shaping the future of rural life. The Jill Willows Scholarship is particularly targeted at those considering a career in the rural sector.

Additionally, we are pleased to offer one John Oldacre Foundation Undergraduate Scholarship match funded by the legacy of Jill Willows to 2nd Year BSc, Final Year BSc or Final Year FdSc students, enrolled on full time undergraduate courses at Harper Adams University, excluding those students studying engineering. The John Oldacre Foundation awarded £1m to the University to provide funding for scholarships to be match funded by other charities or industry partners.

Applicants who are studying at Harper Adams University will be considered for both scholarships, and applicants studying at the Harper & Keele Veterinary School will be considered for the Jill Willows Scholarship only.

The successful scholarship recipient(s) will each receive an award payable for one year only valued up to £3,000. The scholarship will be payable in two equal parts; half to be paid in February 2024 and the balance in May 2024. Payment is conditional on the scholar remaining registered as a full time student at Harper Adams. They must pass all modules of study during the continuation of the scholarship and submit a letter of thanks for the sponsor to the Development Trust prior to the receipt of each payment.

This is a competitive award which will be evaluated on the merit of the submitted application, academic achievements to date and interview. The Development Trust embraces diversity and promotes equality of opportunity and access to higher education. The Trust has been successful in supporting a wide range of students. It strongly encourages applications from students of all backgrounds. Where there are two applicants of equal merit, preference will be given to applicants who are from backgrounds that are underrepresented in UK higher education.

The decision of the Jill Willows Scholarship Panel is FINAL and they reserve the right to withdraw their award at any time should they feel this action is required.

Shortlisted applicants are required to attend a panel interview on Thursday 8 February 2024
Please note that an alternative interview date cannot be arranged
